BRAD FAUCHER

BIOgraphy

Brad Faucher was born in Lawrence MA, July 30th 1971. Faucher's fascination with soul music surprisingly started from listening to his parents' transistor radio at Salisbury beach in the mid-seventies. "The funkier of rhythms from the Spinners, O'Jays, Temptations, and Stevie Wonder were blaring from every beach blanket. I can still remember hearing 'Rubberband Man' for the first time!" -Faucher commented.

After playing trombone through elementary and middle school, taking up the guitar happened by accident in 1989. Brad's high school buddy- Jay Bell left his guitar at the Faucher home over a long weekend. When Jay came back to claim it, he heard a convincing version of the Star-Spangled banner lofting out of Brad's second floor bedroom window... Hendrix-style! For Faucher, it all started with Hendrix and Clapton. He listened and read everything he could get his hands on from these guitar icons. From there, he started tracing back to the masters that inspired his heroes. CDs from BB King, Albert King, SRV, and Albert Collins soon invaded his dorm room!

BRAD FAUCHER

"Brad Faucher digs into every song with his approach to playing- gritty, soulful. (He has been)laying down some of the most potent blues riffs to be heard around the city. Be sure to catch him when you can- this guy is determined...and musical." David Maxwell, Grammy-Award winning pianist

About ALICIA GREEN:

Originally from Melrose, Massachusetts, I have lived in California and Colorado as well. I love to travel to places both near and far and have been fortunate enough to be able to do so nationally and internationally in my work and personally.

I also like to travel locally, providing massage therapy through my mobile massage services offered in Boston and the surrounding area and on the Outer Cape during the summer months. In addition to the mobile aspect of my business, I also have a massage studio in my hometown of Melrose and also a location in Boston for those clients who prefer to come to me.

In addition to my massage business, which I opened in 2004, I have an extensive background in the travel and hospitality industry. This experience has helped immensely with my success as a "Massage Therapist" since it has helped to build my level of professionalism, skill, compassion and passion for my career and for life in general.

I have been fortunate to have the opportunity to work closely with people from all walks of life, including cancer patients and patients in hospice as well as professional athletes and A-list celebrities.

My mobile business is offered at many of Boston's exclusive hotels and I am an independent contractor at the Four Seasons Hotel. And my massage services are also offered at The Liberty Hotel, The Ritz Carlton, The W Hotel and The Hilton Hotels of Boston to name a few. I have managed the massage services at the Logan Airport Hilton since 2009.

My motto is, "When we are balanced we are at our best". Balancing all aspects of your life with your wellness program is a great start. This is necessary in order for our minds and bodies to relax, restore and heal.

Thank you,

Alicia Green, LMT, NCTMB
